This Notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

PATIENT HEALTH INFORMATION (PHI)

Under federal law, your patient health information is protected and confidential. PHI includes information about your symptoms, test results, diagnosis, treatment and related medical information. Your PHI also includes payment, billing and insurance information. Your information may be stored electronically and if so is subject to electronic disclosure.

HOW WE USE AND DISCLOSE PATIENT HEALTH INFORMATION:

For Treatment. We may use PHI to provide, coordinate or manage your healthcare and related services. We may disclose health information about you to your doctor, staff or others who are involved in taking care of you and your health. For example, your doctor may be treating you for a heart condition, which we may need to know about to determine the best plan of care.

For Payment. We may use and disclose PHI for payment purposes to ensure services you receive can be billed, and payment may be collected from you, an insurance company or a third party. For example, this may include certain activities that your health insurance plan may undertake before it approves or pays for the healthcare services we recommend for you, such as making a determination of eligibility or coverage of health benefits.

Healthcare Operations. We may use or disclose your PHI for standard internal operations including evaluation of patient treatment, business management activities, quality assessment and improvement, employee reviews, legal services, and auditing functions.

SPECIAL USES OR DISCLOSURES:

Special Notices. We may contact you at the address and phone number you provide (including leaving a voice message) about scheduled or canceled appointments, billing and/or payment matters.

Required by Law. We may use or disclose your PHI when required to do so by federal or state law. We must also disclose your protected PHI when required by the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services to investigate or determine our compliance with requirements under the Privacy Rule.

Public Health Risks. We may disclose information related to the quality, safety or effectiveness of a product, prevention or disease control, to coroners, medical examiners and funeral directors as needed to perform their duties as required by law, and organ procurement organizations for the purpose of facilitating organ, eye or tissue donation and transplantation.

Victims of Abuse, Neglect or Violence. We may disclose your information to a government authority authorized by law to receive reports of abuse, neglect or violence relating to children or the elderly.

Health Oversight. We may disclose PHI to conduct audits, investigations, inspections, licensure and other proceedings related to oversight of government regulatory programs.

Judicial and Administrative Proceedings. We may disclose information in response to a court order. Under most circumstances, when the request is made through a subpoena, a discovery request or involves another type of administrative order, your authorization will be obtained before disclosure is permitted.

Law Enforcement. We may disclose your health information for law enforcement purposes.

Research. We may disclose information for medical research.

Serious Threat to Health or Safety. We may disclose your health information when necessary to prevent a serious threat to your health and safety, or the health and safety of a particular person or the general public.

Specialized Government Functions. We may disclose health information for military and veterans' affairs, or national security and intelligence activities.

Worker's Compensation. Both state and federal law allow, without your authorization, the disclosure of your health information that is reasonably related to a worker's compensation injury. These programs may provide benefits for work-related injuries or illness.

Others Involved in Your Healthcare. Unless you object, we may disclose to a family member, relative or close friend your PHI that directly relates to that person's involvement in your care. If you have a personal representative, such as a legal guardian (or an executor or administrator of your estate after your death), we will treat that person as if that person is you with respect to disclosures of PHI.

Business Associates. We may disclose PHI to our business associates who perform functions on our behalf or provide us services if the PHI is necessary for those functions or services. We require the business associate to appropriately safeguard your information.

Information Not Personally Identifiable. We may use or disclose health information about you in a way that does not personally identify you or reveal who you are.

Non-Custodial Parent. We may disclose PHI about a minor equally to the custodial and non-custodial parent unless a court order limits the non-custodial parent's access to the information.

SPECIAL USES AND DISCLOSURES THAT REQUIRE YOUR AUTHORIZATION:

If you do authorize us to use or disclose your health information for another purpose, you may revoke your authorization in writing at any time. Your decision to revoke authorization will not affect or reverse any use or disclosure that occurred before you notified us of your decision.

YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION RIGHTS: You have the following rights with regard to your health information. Please contact the Contact Person listed below to obtain the appropriate form for exercising these rights.

We may deny your request to inspect and copy your PHI in certain very limited circumstances. If you are denied access to health information, you may request that the denial be reviewed.

Right to an electronic copy of electronic medical records for your records or to be transmitted to another individual or entity.

Right to receive a security breach notice. If we discover a breach of unsecured PHI, and determines through a risk assessment that notification is required, you will be notified.

You have the right to request an amendment to your protected health information. An amendment request must be made in writing, and must provide reasons to support your request.

You have the right to request a restriction of your protected health information or limitation on the health information we use or disclose about you for treatment, payment or healthcare operations. You also have the right to request a limit on the health information we disclose about you to family members or friends who may be involved in your care or payment for your care.

Out-of-pocket payments. If you paid out-of-pocket in full for a specific item or service, you have the right to request that your PHI with respect to that item or service not be disclosed to a health plan for purposes of payment or health care operations. We are required to agree to your request.

Right to request that you receive confidential communications via alternate means or at an alternate location. For example, you may ask that we only contact you at work or by mail.

You have the right to receive an accounting of certain disclosures. You have the right to receive a list of disclosures of your PHI that we have made, except for disclosures pursuant to an authorization, for purposes of treatment, payment, healthcare operations, or required by law. Your request must state a time period which may not be longer than 6 years before your request.

You have the right to obtain a paper copy of this notice, even if you agreed to receive the notice electronically.
